TRI-STATE SHORTHORN BREEDERS' ASSN. SHOW AND SALE

A group of brood cows at the Paul Halbersleben farm, Eldorado, Illinois. You will find quality like this throughout the cow herds of the consignors to this sale.

The Tri-State Association is one of the most aggressive new associations in the business. Its affairs are well run and a friendly spirit exists. The scope of this group is illustrated by the fact that in each sale over twenty herds have participated as consignors.

The size of the crowds, snappy bidding of the first two semi-annual sales provided the necessary stimulus to take this group through their initial year and establish their sale on a sound footing. In this sale you will always find a good selection of tops that are good enough to go into any herd in the land, and a selection of good doing, practical cattle that sell at prices fitting the pocketbook of every cattleman. This is the largest selection of bulls yet to be offered by this association.

THE TRI-STATE SHORTHORN BREEDERS' ASSOCIATION

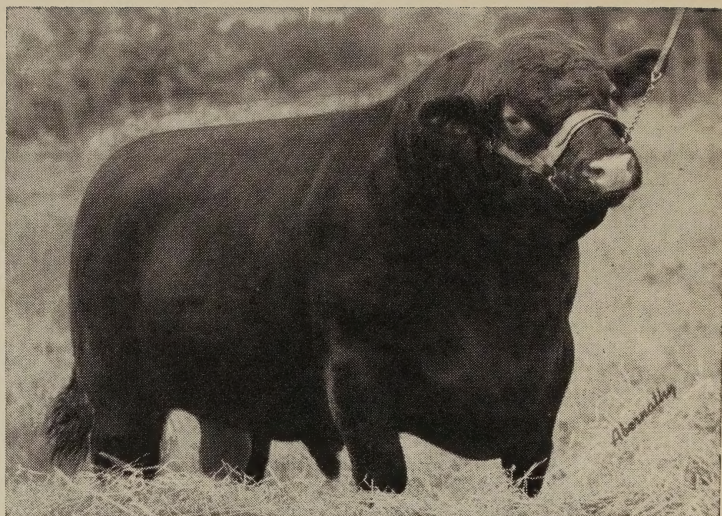

Lloyd Saxe, Albion, Illinois, President.

Roy Siegel, St. Francisville, Illinois, Vice-President.

Fred Wedemeyer, Jr., Mt. Vernon, Illinois, Secy.-Treas.

Directors: Fred Crandall, Oblong, Ill.; Marshall Price, Allendale, Ill.; Earl C. Smith, Owensville, Ind.; Norman Fechtig, Enfield, Ill.; and William Meacham, Sturgis, Ky.

Hillside Royal Leader x. $2,200 top of the Hillside Dispersion. Herd sire for W. A. Wartens, Allerton, Illinois. This bull has sired many champions and top sellers at midwestern Polled Shorthorn sales. The wartens are selling a grandson of Hillside Royal Leader x and a cow with a heifer calf at foot by him.
